

HURI Graduate Student Fellowships Academic Year 2009-2010

Graduate students currently enrolled at Harvard are invited to apply for fellowships for the 2009-10 academic year. The purpose of the fellowship is to provide the student with an opportunity to carry out research in the humanities or social sciences on a topic relating to Ukraine. Criteria for selection will include the importance of the topic, the clarity of the proposal, and the potential for scholarly contribution

Eligibility: Graduate students in all FAS departments are invited to apply, but priority will be given to those students who have completed general exams and are either developing or writing their dissertations.

Duration: In most cases, fellowships will be awarded for one semester, but in exceptional cases, a full academic year fellowship may be awarded.

Stipend: In addition to tuition and fees up to a combined maximum of $2,000.00, the fellowship provides a $5,000.00/semester stipend.

Deadline: Wednesday, April 1, 2009. Decisions will be announced in late May.

Application Procedure:

The original and three collated copies of the of the following materials are to be returned by the above specified deadline to: The Ukrainian Research Institute, Harvard University, Fellowships Committee, 34 Kirkland Street, Cambridge, MA 02138.

- Completed application form.
- A brief (maximum 5 pages, double-spaced) research proposal, including the background, nature, and importance of proposed research, as well as a description of the research objective and methodology.
- A current curriculum vitae, including publications.
- A current official transcript from the Office of the Registrar.

In addition, the applicant must submit two letters of recommendation in signed/sealed envelopes. One letter must be from the applicant's advisor. If possible, original letters should be submitted with the application but may be sent under separate cover for receipt on Wednesday, April 1, 2009.

If you have questions concerning the fellowship or the application procedures, please contact Tymish J. Holowinsky, Executive Director at 617/495-4081 or by e-mail at holowins@fas.harvard.edu.
