

THE EUGENE AND DAYMEL SHKLAR FELLOWSHIPS IN UKRAINIAN STUDIES 2008-2009 APPLICATION

The Eugene and Daymel Shklar Fellowships in Ukrainian Studies brings scholars from the international academic community to Harvard for focused research on projects concerning Ukrainian history, literature, philology, culture, and other fields in the humanities and social sciences. In addition to carrying out their own research, Shklar Fellows participate in the scholarly life of the University, and offer a formal presentation based on original research as part of the Institute's seminars in Ukrainian studies.

Eligibility:

Individuals who hold a doctorate in one of the fields listed above and who have demonstrated a commitment to Ukrainian studies are eligible to apply. Those individuals who have received their Ph.D. or its academic equivalent (e.g., Kandydat nauk) within the past eight to ten years are especially encouraged to apply.

Stipends:

To support their stay at Harvard, Eugene and Daymel Shklar Fellows are provided with a stipend of $3,300 per month to cover the cost of housing, health insurance, and other living expenses. In addition to the stipend, the award also covers the cost of direct roundtrip travel to Harvard University.

Fellowship Tenure:

Requests for residence for periods from three to eight months will be considered; adjustments in the requested time-frame may be made at the time of award. The average tenure for a fellow has been four months.

Fellowship Application Instructions:

The completed application consists of three parts:

1. The fellowship application cover form attached to these instructions. (The form must be typed in English.)
2. A six to eight page description (double-spaced, 12 point font, and one inch margins) of your project, including its significance, the expected date of completion, and the reasons why residency at Harvard University is necessary for its successful completion.
3. Your curriculum vitae.

Submission:

The original signed application cover form, project description, and CV – clipped together as one set – along with five complete duplicate copies of the set must be received by March 14, 2008 to the following address:
